Dear Judge Pauley:

August 12, 2014

In re NO Mobile, Inc. Securities Litigation, Civ. A. No. 13-cv-7608-WHP

We represent PricewaterhouseCoopers International Limited ("PwCIL"), a defendant in the above-captioned matter. A summons was issued as to PwCIL on July 21, 2014, and PwCIL was served with the summons and the Amended Complaint on July 24, 2014. The time for PwCIL to move against or answer the complaint is therefore August 14, 2014. We request an extension of the time for PwCIL to move or answer under Part I.D of Your Honor's Practices. This is the first request by PwCIL.

PwCIL believes that it would be most efficient for the Court and the parties to address any motions to dismiss from all defendants at one time. In this case, most of the defendants named in the Amended Complaint appear to be entities or individuals located in China. In particular, it would be unfairly prejudicial for PwCIL to be required to move to dismiss at this time, as the only claim brought against PwCIL is a "control person" claim under Section 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act, and the defendant named on the underlying Section 10(b) claim—PricewaterhouseCoopers Zhong Tian LLP—apparently has not been served.

The undersigned counsel has conferred with William C. Fredericks, counsel for Lead Plaintiffs. Mr. Fredericks stated that, because Lead Plaintiffs were still working to resolve possible disputes relating to the service of certain other defendants through ongoing meet and confer discussions, he could not consent at this time to delay briefing on all motions to dismiss until all defendants have been served. The parties also noted that there was an initial pretrial conference already scheduled for September 5, 2014, at 10:00 a.m. Given these facts, PwCIL requested, and Lead Plaintiffs consented to, an interim extension of the time for PwCIL to move or answer until 30 days following the September 5 initial pretrial conference, so that PwCIL can raise its concerns about briefing issues with the Court at that conference.

MEMO ENDORSED

PwCIL therefore requests on consent an extension of the time to move or answer until October 6, 2014.

Respectfully,

Antony L. Ryan
